DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-40 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-40 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Lebda et al., US 6,611,816.

Lebda discloses, e.g. Figs. 1-12, using a computer for an online credit application based upon personal information about a buyer using a first and second web servers, e.g. 114, 250.

Lebda does not explicitly disclose a product being offered for sale on-line. However, loans may be viewed as a product. Nonetheless, Official Notice is taken that multiple servers used in an electronic commerce environment offering products for sale has been common knowledge in the point-of-sale electronic art. To have provided such for Lebna would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art. It is noted the approval criterion recited in the claims is inherent with Lebna.

It is noted Applicant's claim language is replete with intended use claim language, e.g. claim 1, line 4, "for sale on the first web server," that is given little if any patentable weight in juxtaposition to positively recited claim language, e.g. claim 1, line 3 "a first web server."

Applicant's December 4, 2006 REMARKS have been reviewed are convincing with regards to the previous Office Action, but are moot in light of the new rejection.
